Determining Homelessness by the Definition¹

Experience has shown that, despite its specificity, the McKinney-Vento Act's definition of homelessness leaves us with some gray areas. State Coordinators, liaisons and others need a process to resolve those gray areas. This document suggests some potential elements of such a process.

The McKinney-Vento Act's definition of "homeless children and youths" provides the following general framework: individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. The law then lists several situations which fit within that framework. This list is not exclusive; rather, it is meant to address some of the more common situations of homelessness. Migrant children who are living in one of the described situations are also considered homeless under the Act.

It cannot be emphasized enough that determining whether a particular child or youth fits the definition of homeless is a case-specific inquiry. General answers based on incomplete information or hypothetical situations will often be legally incorrect.

STEP 1

Is the child or youth covered by subparagraph (B)(i) of the definition?

Sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason;

Living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to the lack of alternative adequate accommodations;

Living in emergency or transitional shelters;

Abandoned in hospitals; or

Awaiting foster care placement.

If yes, apply the McKinney-Vento Act.

If no, go to Step 2.

If unclear, see if Step 4 can help, and/or seek advice from your attorney, the U.S. Department of Education, your peers, or other appropriate individuals.

To further define "awaiting foster care placement", collaborate with child welfare officials, attorneys and other community members to establish guidelines.

Is the child or youth covered by subparagraph (B)(ii) of the definition?

Has a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.

If yes, apply the McKinney-Vento Act.

If no, go to Step 3.

If unclear, see if Step 4 can help, and/or seek advice from your attorney, the U.S. Department of Education, your peers, or other appropriate individuals.

STEP 3

Is the child or youth covered by subparagraph (B)(iii) of the definition?

Living in a car, park, public space, abandoned building, substandard housing, bus or train station, or similar setting.

If yes, apply the McKinney-Vento Act.

If no, go to Step 4.

If unclear, see if Step 4 can help, and/or seek advice from your attorney, the U.S. Department of Education, your peers, or other appropriate individuals.

To further define “substandard housing”, collaborate with attorneys and other community members to establish guidelines sensitive to community standards and cultural norms.

STEP 4

Does the child or youth lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence?

If yes, apply the McKinney-Vento Act.

If no, don't apply the McKinney-Vento Act.

If unclear, see if the definitions below can help, and/or seek advice from your attorney, the U.S. Department of Education, your peers, or other appropriate individuals.
